March 17, 2020

Dear NWABSD Parents and Students,

The Northwest Arctic Borough School District spring break will end Friday, March 20, 2020. All staff will return to work for non-student contact days. All students will stay home.

All staff will be screened upon returning to school/work following the Maniilaq screening protocols and abiding by the COVID-19 Health Alert from The State of Alaska Department of Health and Social Services.

Please see the tentative schedule below:

Monday, March 23 & Tuesday, March 24

- Staff screening
- Staff return to work to finalize the plans for student meals and education
- Staff communicate plans with all parents, guardians and students from their schools

Wednesday, March 25 – Friday, April 3

- Staff continue to go to work; students continue to stay home
- Packaged student meals are dropped off at designated locations for parents/students to pick up and take home
- Instructional materials for all students are dropped off at designated locations
- Distance instruction begins as scheduled by schools

Please understand this plan will be updated as time goes on to comply with the most recent Local, State, and Federal mandates.

Sincerely,

Terri Walker
Superintendent
